A composite image featuring two women in astronaut suits. The woman on the left is wearing a white space suit and holding a white helmet. The woman on the right is wearing a blue NASA flight suit with patches, including the NASA logo and a name patch that reads 'SHERIDAN'. She has her hand on her hip and is smiling. The background is a collage of space-related imagery, including a rocket launch, a space station, and a view of Earth from space.
